Waglan Series: 2017 - 2018

Once again it is my privilege to welcome all participants to the 13th Waglan Series since the title was coined in 2004; although racing off Hong Kong's Southern shores, from ABC's then Nissan hut base, actually started in the 70's. Fittingly, in this our 50th anniversary year, the Series has been expanded to include 12 races, split as usual into two mini-Series, plus a reserved Re-sail date.. The invitation is open to all keel-boat Owners in Hong Kong to join the Series or individual races: which may also appeal to any passing rovers.

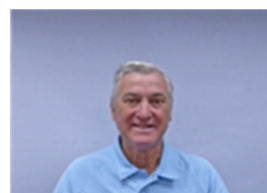

As ever, each race finishes at, or within close reach of, Middle Island where sailors are encouraged to enjoy ABC's range of refreshments pending the announcements of results and prizes for the day's Divisional winners. The Main Prize giving event will be held after the last race, or Re-sail, in the Series so mark your diaries for this popular party.

ABC's revised Standard Sailing Instructions 2017 apply with a choice of 17 different courses weaving between islands and marks in the waters to the SE and SW of Aberdeen using the ---by now familiar---two separate E or W starts. Plus, on two weekends, the Windward/Leewards. Sailors are reminded to pay particular care not to stray into any Traffic Separation Zones. In this regard please refer to Article 10 in the SSI and note that pleasure yacht racing is facing increasing scrutiny with every race subject to specific, discretionary, approval from the Authorities..

Once again we are most grateful to be enjoying the support of Fuegy with their generous fuel offers. Let's demonstrate by fulsome support that their generosity is deserved

Let's hope, too, that the monsoon has set in by the time of the first race on 8th October. Wishing all participants an exhilarating, and safe, season's racing.

ABC Commodore
